

Construction Business Resource Guide

For Monadnock Region
Builders & Tradespeople

Funding for this brochure provided by a grant from the
Clowes Foundation

Photo Courtesy of KSC – Tori Siracusa

MONADNOCK ORGANIZATIONS

Hannah Grimes Center schedules workshops & networking events for small businesses and programs specific to construction & the trades; produces e-newsletter aggregating relevant events and resources for this industry. 25 Roxbury Street—Suite C, Keene, 603-352-5063, www.hannahgrimes.com.

NH Small Business Development Center (Keene Office) provides no-charge, confidential one-on-one business management coaching & advisory services to businesses. Also offers online training available 24-7. KSC Blake House, Keene, 603-358-2602, www.nhsbdc.org.

Home Builders and Remodelers Association of Southwestern NH connects its members with a network of builders, contractors, suppliers, bankers & other professionals in the construction industry. Also offers trade journals, newsletters, seminars & conferences covering safety, OSHA programs, Green Building guidelines, management and construction techniques. 181 Washington Street, Keene, 603-357-0242, www.hbraswnh.com.

Keene State College's Office of Continuing Education supports professionals in the Construction field through on-line and in-person classes in a variety of subjects including Construction Management, HVAC, OSHA Safety, and BPI Building Analyst training. The college offers certification in Building Science and Renewable Energy, and degrees in Architecture, Safety Studies, and Business Management. 229 Main Street, Keene, NH 03435, 603-358-2290, www.keene.edu/conted.